India has many unsung heroes, who devoted their lives to the cause of the nation. Some, probably had not even heard of 'Unsung Heroes' portrayed by MBA students of 2021-23 batch at the event organized to celebrate and acknowledge immense contribution of numerous unknown heroes to the cause of our nation. These unsung heroes are also the reason we live in a free country today.

As per convention of the institute, programme began with the Saraswati Vandana invoking Saraswati, the goddess of knowledge and learning. The event was marked by the gracious presence of Dr N. K.Garg, Founder Chairman and Chief Advisor, MATES who enthused the students with his profound speech. Prof Dr. Neelam Sharma, Director MAIT motivated students on a positive note. Prof. S.S Deswal Dean, Academics MAIT wished the students and encouraged them. A cordial welcome speech was presented by Head of Department (MBA), Prof. Dr. Amit Gupta.

The event received overwhelming response with fifteen teams comprising of fifty-three students of MBA department, presenting innovative and novel presentations depicting life and lessons of unsung heroes like Acharya Chanakya, Homi Bhabha, Kunwar Singh, Laxmi Narayan Tripathi, Swapnil Tewari to name a few.

The presentation concluded on a high note with the jury of faculty comprising Dr Sangeeta Rawal, Kalpana Sharma and Rajiv Jain, announcing the winners of the event.

QUOTATIONS
कामयाबी तक जाने वाले सभी रास्ते सीधे नहीं होते हैं, लेकिन कामयाबी मिलने पर सभी रास्ते सीधे हो जाते हैं।
ACHARYA CHANKYA
जीवन में आगे बढना है तो बहरे हो जाओ...
क्योंकि अधिकतर लोगों की बातें मनोबल गिराने वाली होती है
• "Even if a gem be placed on the foot and a mirror on the head, still, the gem will not lose its value."
• "Never make friends with people who are above or below you in status. Such friendships will never give you any happiness."
• "Learn from the mistakes of others…you can't live long enough to make them all yourselves."
• "Never share your secret with anybody. It will destroy you."
